Respected Sir/Mam,

Attention is drawn to the mounting financial problems and the massive infrastructural development undertaken by China in POK. There vast tracks of lands within POK such as Gilgit region where Chinese are undertaking massive infrastructural projects.

The Chinese government have the policy of taking over the land developed by them in case the opposition party is unable to pay the loan amount.

Original RTI Text (मूल आरटीआई

पाठ):

Hence, it is highly suspected that the POK land which rightly belongs to India according to accession papers signed by Maharaja Hari Singh, may be taken over by China.

The RTI activist hence wants to know what actions have been taken by the MEA, India for the protection of Indian interests in case Pakistan fails to pay loans to China.

Both online and offline reply to this RTI application is requested.
