73rd Independence Day of India was celebrated at India House with participation of large number of Indian Community members and friends of India.

2. High Commissioner Shri Rahul Chhabra unfurled the National Flag, which was followed by singing of National Anthem. High Commissioner read out the speech of the President of India and addressed the guests. He informed them about the initiatives taken by High Commission and invited them for interaction during 'Open House' session, held on every first Wednesday of each month. More than 500 people attended the celebration.

3. World Sanskrit Day was also celebrated with a skit performance by children in Sanskrit language, depicting the freedom struggle in India.

4. High Commissioner also laid a wreath of flowers at the Commonwealth War Memorial in Nairobi. The memorial is dedicated to Indian and British Officers and men who laid down their lives in 1917 during the First World war.
