

Press Release

A Special Training Course on “Election Management Principles and Practices” is being organized by the Election Commission of India under the Indian Technical and Economic Cooperation (ITEC) from 10 – 23 April, 2013.

The Government of India has invited applications from suitable officers who could benefit from this training under ITEC scholarships. All expenditure including travel, lodging and boarding, course material and local tours are paid for by the Government of India.