

Announcing the Opening of the 2020-2021 Fulbright Fellowship Application Season

New Delhi, January 15, 2019

The United States-India Educational Foundation (USIEF) announces the opening of its annual competition for Fulbright-Nehru, Fulbright-Kalam and other Fulbright fellowships. Such exchanges have helped bring the people of India and the United States closer together through opportunities that enrich fellows' academic, research, teaching and professional capacity. Alumni of exchange and scholarship programs administered by USIEF have demonstrated strong leadership in several fields, including agriculture, the arts, business, education, the environment, humanities and social sciences, public health, and science and technology. Outstanding Indian students, academics, teachers, policy makers, administrators, and professionals are encouraged to apply.

USIEF expects to offer approximately 100 Fulbright-Nehru<<http://usief.org.in/Fellowships/Fulbright-Nehru-Fellowships.aspx>> and eight Fulbright-Kalam Climate Fellowships<<http://usief.org.in/Fellowships/Fulbright-Kalam-Climate-Fellowship.aspx>> to Indian applicants in 2020. Fellowship details are posted on the USIEF website (<http://www.usief.org.in/>) and the first application deadline is May 15, 2019. Applicants may send any queries to ip@usief.org.in or contact one of the USIEF offices in New Delhi, Chennai, Hyderabad, Kolkata, or Mumbai.
