

South Asian University
New Delhi

Details of cultural activities

International Mother Language Day

It is observed every year on 21 February. Poster-making competition on the theme of language and speech is organised followed by cultural events where SAU students perform song and dance representing their own languages and cultures and recite poetry.

Sports Day

The SAU Annual Sports Fest, organized by the SAU Sports Committee is held during the winter semester in the month of February with enthusiastic participation by students from all departments and faculties at SAU in multiple sporting disciplines such as Table Tennis, Badminton, Carrom, Chess, Football, Basketball, Volleyball, Cricket etc.

Cultural Committee Program

The SAU annual cultural festival is organized in March every year with cultural activities of various hues and sounds in the two-day event.

SAU Food Fest

It is organised to celebrate the Foundation day of South Asian University on the 7th March every year. The primary object of the food Fest is to encourage the students to exhibit their local cuisine under one umbrella. It gives the students an opportunity to exhibit their varied culinary skills and the visitors are treated to sumptuous spread of food and snacks from the South Asia region.