

India-St. Kitts & Nevis Bilateral Brief

Introduction

The 1983 Constitution provides St. Kitts and Nevis with a Parliament headed officially by Queen Elizabeth II who is represented by a Governor-General. Of the 14-member House of Assembly, 11 members are elected from single member constituencies on the basis of universal suffrage and three members are nominated to the House out of which two on the advice of the Prime Minister and one on the advice of the Leader of the Opposition. Mid-term elections were held on 5 August 2022 in St. Kitts & Nevis three years earlier than scheduled. Seven years after being booted out of office, the main opposition St. Kitts Nevis Labour Party led by Dr. Terrence Drew won six of the 11 contested seats. Concerned Citizens Movement won 3, while People's Action Movement and Peoples Labour Party won 1 each. The Governor General makes appointment to the remaining four seats after the elections. Prime Minister Dr. Terrence Drew is the Head of the Government and Douglas Denzil is the Foreign Minister.
